Distribution

Distribution is a visual representation of issues classification. The issues in distribution are shared among one or two axes of different parameters.

Using distributions you can break down issues by status, assignee or other attribute. JIRA Client creates and updates a list of sub-queries for each value of the attribute.

See Also

- Working with Issues
- Search
- Searching Issues