Removing Items from Structure

To remove an item from the current structure, select this item and press Delete button on the keyboard or click Delete button on the toolbar. The item is removed with all its children item.

You can select multiple items and remove them all in one action.

Removing an issue from a structure does not delete the issue itself. It just removes it from the current structure.

Removing items can be undone.