JIRA Client log files

JIRA Client log files contain history of actions performed by JIRA Client. Sometimes they are the only source of information for troubleshooting.

JIRA Client logs are contained in the log subdirectory under JIRA Client workspace. Main log files have the form of trackerNNN.log. There could be other log files, such as dumps of all HTTP answers from JIRA.